Qualified Contractor Program

Underwriters Laboratories
16th Oct 2011

Ahmed Eldidi, Regional Manager Middle East & Africa

© 2011 Underwriters Laboratories Inc.
Agenda

- Need for Contractor Program?
- What is Qualified Contractor Program?
- What are the UL’s existing Personnel Certification Programs?
- Q & A
Typical Built Environment

Sprinkler Pipe
Sprinkler
Valve
Fire Extinguisher
Fire Dept. Connection
Fire Hydrant
Diesel Engine
Fire Pump

Fire Suppression
Typical Built Environment

Fire Resistance And Containment

- Fire Door
- Fire Window
- Fire Damper
- Fire Safes
- Fire Stops
- Vertical Assembly
- Horizontal Assembly
- Spray Applied Fire Resistive Column
Stake Holders For Built Environment

- Designer
- Manufacturer
- Installer
- AHJs (ADCD/DCD) & 3rd Parties
- User
- Maintenance Agency
Fire-stop
Qualified Contractor Program

A program that certifies professional’s knowledge within a specific subject area by conducting an assessment after providing a learning event or series of learning events designed to educate or train professionals.
Training - Personnel Certification & Audit

- Skill Set
- Management System
Exam – Personnel Certification & Audit

- Skill Set
- Management System Audit
- Professional’s Facility
- Job Site
Certificate – Personnel Certification Program

- Certificate
- Re-Evaluation
- Skill Set
- Management System Audit
- Professional’s Facility
- Job Site
UL’s Qualified Contractor Programs - Outcome

- Qualified SFRM Contractor Program
- Qualified Firestop Contractor Program
Personnel Certification Program - Outcome

AHJs/Regulator/Insurers – Compliance to Regulation

Facility Owner-
- Selection of Service Provider
- Employers – Judge Skill of Employees

Service Providers –
- Level playing field
- Criteria for Qualification
THANK YOU.